

2022 ISASP Data

The following represents the performance of 6th and 7th graders in the 2021-2022 school year who scored proficient or advanced on their ISASP tests in the Spring of 2022. Students are currently in 7th and 8th grade for the 2022-2023 school year.

Current 7th Graders ISASP Data for Math

Current 7th Graders ISASP Data for Language Arts

ISASP-Math

Current 7th Graders

87% of current 7th Graders scored proficient in Math which is 20% higher than the State average

ISASP-Language Arts

Current 7th Graders

86% of current 7th Graders scored proficient in English Language Arts which is 7% higher than the State average

Current 8th Graders ISASP Data for Math

Current 8th Graders ISASP Data for Language Arts

ISASP-Math

Current 8th Graders

88% of current 8th Graders scored proficient in Math which is 23% higher than the State average

ISASP-Language Arts

Current 8th Graders

89% of current 8th Graders scored proficient in English Language Arts which is 16% higher than the State average

Current 9th Graders ISASP Data for Science

2021-2022 (8th grade) Science

ISASP-Science

Current 9th Graders

79% of current 9th Graders scored proficient in Science which is 12% higher than the State average

Fall FAST Scores (September 2022)

Students are assessed in Math and Reading three times a year using the FAST testing. The following are scores from Fall 2022 averaging all three grades.

- 88% of Regis students scored above the State benchmark in Reading
- 83% of Regis students scored above the State benchmark in Math